

George MacPherson

Director

- Appointed June 18, 2008
- Committee Membership: Finance

George was born and attended school in Saint John, New Brunswick. He began his career as a ship plater at Saint John Dry Dock in New Brunswick and then moved to Vancouver in pursuit of more stable employment. His devotion to the working class began in his early 20s and he has continued to devote much of his energy towards improving and protecting the rights of individuals. His goal is to see harmony in the workplace, growth of individuals through training, education, and excellence in craftsmanship. George is well known for his passionate crusade to keep the shipyard industry alive and vibrant in British Columbia. His dedication to this cause is respected by both working people and employers in the province.

Currently George serves on several committees, including Chair of the Shipyard Workforce Industrial Adjustment Committee, Secretary Treasurer of the Pacific Coast Maritime Council, and Administrator of the Marine Workers' Welfare & Pension Plans. He is also very involved with the Labour Charity Christmas dinner. His past experiences include Chair of the BC Council of Marine Industries, Chair of the Joint Shipyard Conference, and Chair of the Canadian Steel Trade & Employment Congress. He also sat as Vice Chair of the BC Council of Marine Industries.
