

Important Notice to BC Welders re: Apprenticeship Incentive Grant

Did you know that your Welder C certification qualifies you for the $1,000 Apprenticeship Incentive Grant from the Government of Canada, and that Welder B certification is equivalent to level 2?

To make it easier for you to claim these grants, the ITA has begun sending out Progression letters to BC welders who completed their C or B ticket in 2008. These letters must be attached to your Apprenticeship Incentive Grant applications in order for you to receive your grant.
